Civil Ceremonies at the Theatre Royal Vestibule

The beautifully elegant vestibule at the Theatre Royal is available as a venue for civil wedding ceremonies in Waterford. If you're looking for something a little different and want classic simplicity in a venue steeped in heritage then this is the setting for you.

We can accommodate wedding ceremonies for up to 100 people in our striking 18th century entrance hall. Surrounded by a selection of art work from the Waterford City Municipal Art Collection, one of the hidden gems of the Irish art world, you and your significant other can exchange vows with as little or as much formality as you like.

Smaller weddings have the option of holding a champagne reception after the ceremony in the vestibule.
